TIPS

General Tips

- Start early!! The process almost always takes longer than anticipated. Plan out to complete the application at least 3 days before the deadline in case an unanticipated delay occurs.
- Determine which additional documents you need and arrange them as soon as possible. Transcripts and letters of reference take 2-3 weeks at least.
- Reference letters do matter. Make sure you select referees early who are willing to give you a strong reference (more on this later).

Putting Together your Application

An application to a major scholarship typically requires:

- A research statement (2 pages)
- Reference letters
- Transcripts
- Your educational background, research contributions achievements and other relevant information

Research Output/Contributions

- List all contributions, starting with most recent (unless otherwise specified in the instructions):
 - a. Published or accepted articles in refereed journals
 - b. Submitted articles to refereed journals (must have submission #)
 - c. Other refereed contributions (communications, conference proceedings, posters)
 - d. Non-refereed contributions (publications, reports)
 - e. Contributions from professional or industrially relevant R&D activities

Applicant's Statement

- Relevant experience
 - Describe the research abilities that you have gained through your past research experience, including special projects, honours/master's thesis, co-op reports, etc. Discuss the relevance of that experience to your proposed field of study/research.
 - This section may also be used to describe your training relative to your proposed research such as knowledge gained through lived experience and traditional teachings.
- Relevant activities
 - Describe your participation in relevant professional, academic and extracurricular activities as well as collaborations with supervisors, colleagues, peers, students and members of the community

Notes on Reference Letters

- Reference letters are an essential component of the application for evaluation
- Contact potential referees early (at least 3 weeks in advance)
- Share your draft proposal, and any other relevant information that may help them develop an effective support letter
- Share the Referee Guide:
(<https://gradstudies.yorku.ca/faculty-staff/student-finances/successful-reference-letters-guide/>)

Applications - DO's

- Keep audience in mind
- Use clear and concise writing
 - Make every word count and avoid adjectives and filler words
- Seek feedback!
 - Colleagues, supervisors
 - Friends/family that have absolutely no knowledge of your topic
 - Each person should be able to read your application and clearly understand each section

General Formatting

- General formatting: (review instructions)
 - Times New Roman or comparable, size 12, black ink
 - Single spaced, single sided only
 - Paper size : 8.5 x 11 inches; Margins: $\frac{3}{4}$ inch all around
 - Left Justified Paragraphs
 - Number pages sequentially
 - Abide by the page limits
 - Describe abbreviations and acronyms
