

YORK GRADUATE STUDENTS IN EDUCATION NEWSLETTER

January 2023

Vol. 2

CO-CHAIR UPDATES

Happy new year to all our students. We hope you are adjusting well as we move back into work mode. The winter can be a hard time for everyone, we encourage you to reach out to services provided by York (<https://counselling.students.yorku.ca/>) and beyond should you be struggling.

GPD SEARCH LAUNCHES

The search for our graduate program director (GPD) will be starting shortly. Our GPD is a very important role. If you know a student-centred professor who would serve well as GPD for the next 3 years, encourage them to nominate themselves.

FEEDBACK ON HONORARIA

The Constitution Committee is looking for feedback on implementing honoraria for YGSE Council members. Please consult this form for more information:

BLACK SOCIAL EVENTS SURVEY

The Anti-Black Racism Committee is conducting a survey to hear from graduate students who identify as Black. We would love to know about your experience as a Black student pertaining to social events.

Survey: <https://tinyurl.com/ns7dwbu9>

The deadline to complete the survey is January 20th, 2023.

We look forward to hearing from you!

CALL FOR PROPOSALS: YGSE GRADUATE STUDENT CONFERENCE

The annual graduate conference will be taking place on May 11-13, 2023. The theme is "Other Worlds, Any Ways", an invitation to situate our work at the point of walking towards the horizon, the utopia to engage in ongoing world-building as a practice and collective commitment. All graduate students are invited to submit papers and creative works exploring the conference theme and theoretical questions.

The deadline for submission is Friday, February 24th, 2023. For more information, including submission guidelines, please refer to the Call for Proposals that can be found on our website: <https://tinyurl.com/4wp5ebvh>

For any specific inquiries email the YGSE Graduate Conference Coordinators at gradconf@edu.yorku.ca.
